St. James's, November 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Militia of Devonſhire, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonſhire Militia.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonſhire Militia, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Duty and Allegiance.

With Sorrow and Concern we ſaw the firſt Sparks of Diſſenſion ariſe between Great Britain and her dependent Colonies; with the greateſt, with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, we now not only ſee theſe Sparks break out into the fierceſt Flames of Anarchy and Rebellion, but to our Surprize and Aſtoniſhment, we behold thoſe Flames ſupplied with freſh Fuel, and the enkindled Blaze fomented by many ſelf-intereſted, diſcontented, and ill-diſpoſed Perſons, even in this Kingdom, who juſtify and approve the daring rebellious Meaſures of the Colonies, againſt the Legiſlative Authority of this Country.

At this alarming Criſis, both as faithful Subjects, and as Soldiers moſt firmly attached to your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family and the happy Conſtitution of our Country, we think it our indiſpenſible Duty to aſſure our moſt Gracious Sovereign, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, that we are reſolved and ready, as far as the Laws of this Realm will admit, to ſtand by your Majeſty againſt all rebellious Attempts whatſoever; to defend your Sacred Perſon, and to ſupport our preſent Conſtitution, at the Hazard of our Lives, and at the Expence of our Fortunes.

Dated at our Meeting at Bideford, in the ſaid County of Devon, the Twenty-firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleſton in the County of Cornwall, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and, uninfluenced by any other Motives than thoſe of Duty and Loyalty to our Sovereign, to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the unnatural Rebellion, which ſome of your Majeſty's Provinces in North America have lately entered into, fomented by the Arts of evil and deſigning Men: And to teſtify to your Majeſty our entire Approbation of, and Confidence in, thoſe Meaſures which are purſuing for bringing theſe deluded People to a Return of their Duty. For which Purpoſe we, amidſt the reſt of our loyal Fellow-Subjects, do hereby make a Tender of our faithful Services to your Majeſty.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council aſſembled, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of your Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council aſſembled, under no Influence but the Dictates of our own Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to declare our Abhorrence of the Rebellion in your American Colonies, excited by deſigning Men, and, we are ſorry to add, encouraged by too many at Home, againſt their moſt indulgent Sovereign and the Supreme Legiſlature of the Britiſh Empire; under whoſe Protection our Liberties, both Religious and Civil, have long been uninterruptedly enjoyed, and can only in future ſubſiſt.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for theſe Bleſſings, we are ready on every Occaſion to aſſiſt your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power, in ſubjecting your rebellious Subjects to the Obedience they owe their lawful Sovereign, and both Houſes of Parliament; and we pray that Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty, and direct your Councils to maintain our happy Conſtitution, and defeat the traiterous Machinations of all your Enemies, Foreign and Domeſtic, deſigned againſt your Sacred Perſon and Government.

Signed in our Name and Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the Firſt of November, 1775, by Alexander Simſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, aſſembled at Dundee this 25th of October, 1775.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

SEnſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we ſee, with the deepeſt Concern, that a Part of our Fellow-Subjects in America, having adopted Principles ſubverſive of all legal Government

Government and Subordination, are now in a State of actual Hoſtility and Rebellion.

At ſuch a Period we conſider ourſelves as called on, with the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, publickly to declare our Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, our Abhorrence of every Meaſure that may prove prejudicial to them, and our Deſire of contributing to undeceive a People miſled by the Hopes of finding in their Mother-Country that ſame licentious Spirit, which prevails among themſelves.

To this Teſtimony of our own unſhaken Loyalty and Affection, it gives us Pleaſure to add, that the ſame Principles prevail among the People under our Care, who, as well as we, look with Aſtoniſhment on thoſe factious Men in Great Britain, who, to gratify their own Ambition, are ready to ſacrifice the Intereſts of their Country, and the Lives of their Fellow-Subjects.

It is our earneſt Prayer to the great Diſpoſer of all Events, that the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature may be acknowledged and obeyed throughout all the Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions; and that Means may happily be deviſed for obtaining that End without the further Effuſion of human Blood, which, as Men and Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace, we wiſh to be avoided: But if, to our great Regret, lenient Meaſures ſhould unhapily prove ineffectual, and only tend to foment the Diſorders which they are meant to remedy, we will moſt cordially pray for Succeſs to ſuch Expedients as the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils ſhall find neceſſary to employ.

That Almighty God may pour down his beſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty's Perſon and Family; that He may long preſerve your Majeſty to be the Guardian of our Religious and Civil Liberties, as preſently eſtabliſhed by Law, and to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People; and may, at a diſtant Period, crown you with immortal Glory, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, are, and ever ſhall be the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful,
moſt Obedient,
and moſt Loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders aſſembled in this Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by James Adamſon, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, incorporated Trades, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Dundee, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, incorporated Trades, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Dundee, highly ſenſible of the Happineſs of our Situation under your mild and moſt gracious Government, beg Leave, in the moſt reſpectful Manner, to addreſs your Majeſty with the utmoſt Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy. Zealous for the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, it is with Pleaſure and Admiration we review the Wiſdom of your Councils, ever ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne.

Senſible that your Majeſty's Goodneſs reached the remoteſt Corner of this extended Empire, it raiſed our Indignation and Surpriſe when firſt we heard of the ungrateful Conduct of many of your American Subjects; we never could have thought that they ſo ſoon would have forgot the Hand that ſaved them; or that they ſo lately, at the Expence of much Blood and Treaſure, freed from the Inſults of a Foreign Power, and bleſſed with Britiſh Freedom, would have dared to raiſe the Standard of Rebellion againſt your Government.

We would ſtill fondly hope that they would yet return to their Duty, and ſpare the further Effuſion of Blood.—But ſhould they ſtill continue in their Obſtinacy, we hope more vigorous Methods will be adopted and continued, until they ſhall appear ſenſible of their Crimes, content with their juſt Rights, and atone for their Offences, by their Submiſſion to the Laws of this Kingdom.

While we diſapprove of the rebellious Conduct of your Majeſty's Subjects in America, we are ſorry to think, that even ſome of our own Countrymen, by their Practices, rather appear the Aiders and Abettors of their Treaſon. Theſe, notwithſtanding their ſpecious Pretences, we conſider as the Enemies of their Country, and view their Endeavours to raiſe Diſturbances amongſt us with Abhorrence.

It is with Pleaſure we can aſſure your Majeſty, that our Trade hath as yet ſuffered nothing by the American Ports being ſhut againſt us.

We are happy under your Majeſty's Reign, and will moſt cheerfully, to the utmoſt of our Power, exert ourſelves upon all Occaſions to ſupport the Dignity of the Crown, and the true Intereſts of Great Britain.

Aleppo, Auguſt 31. Letters from Bagdat, of the 14th Inſtant, mention, that the Garriſon of Buſſarah was numerous, in good Spirits, and had Proviſions for ſome Months; and that the Muſcat Fleet, conſiſting of about 150 Sail great and ſmall, was coming to their Aſſiſtance, and daily expected: Preparations were likewiſe making at Bagdat to ſuccour Buſſarah.

Conſtantinople, September 18. The Grand Seignor has ſent a Preſent of a valuable Fur, and Sabre, ornamented with Diamonds, to the Captain Paſcha, who ſent hither the Head of the Rebel Scheck Daher.

Moſcow, September 25. Yeſterday in the Evening her Imperial Majeſty, attended by the Marſhals Romanzow and Roſamowſky, and Count Ivan Czernichew, ſet out on a Pilgrimage to the Convent of Voſkrecenſkoy, where her Majeſty propoſes to ſtay till Tomorrow Morning, when ſhe intends to proceed from thence to Jaropolitz, a Seat of Marſhal Czernichew, and to honour him with her Company during that and the following Day, and to return to this Place on Thurſday Evening or Friday Morning. Though the Great Duke is ſo well recovered from his Indiſpoſition as to have been able to appear at Court Yeſterday; yet his Health is not ſufficiently re-eſtabliſhed to admit of his accompanying the Empreſs, and he remains in Town with the Great Dutcheſs.

Moſcow, October 5. On Sunday laſt, being the Great Duke's Birth-Day, there was a very brilliant Court both Morning and Evening, but her Imperial Majeſty, being indiſpoſed, did not appear; and her Indiſpoſition continuing prevented her likewiſe from appearing on Tueſday, the Anniverſary of her Coronation. The Empreſs, however, is now ſo well recovered as to propoſe ſetting out on Sunday next on an Excurſion to Columna, in order to take the Benefit of the preſent fine Weather. During her Imperial Majeſty's Abſence the Great Duke and Dutcheſs intend honouring Count Zachar Czernichew with a Viſit at Jaropolitz.

Eſcurial, October 9. The Court is arrived here from St. Ildephonſo. The Princeſs of Aſturias is now ſo well as to dine in publick as uſual. The exceſſive Rains, which have lately fallen at Madrid, have done much Miſchief; and ſo great a Quantity of Snow has lately fallen, as to render the Roads acroſs the Mountain almoſt impaſſable.

Vienna, October 11. The Vintage, which is now begun every where, is likely to prove one of the richeſt, both in Quantity and Quality, that is remembered in the Courſe of this Century.

Vienna, October 14. The Nobility and Foreign Miniſters were admitted laſt Night to the Honour of taking Leave of the Archduke and Archdutcheſs of Milan, whoſe Departure from hence is fixed for the 17th Inſtant.

Vienna, October 18. Their Royal Highneſſes the Archduke Ferdinand and the Archdutcheſs ſet out early Yeſterday Morning, on their Return to Italy. They intend going by the Way of Trieſte and Venice, and will probably not arrive at Milan before the Middle of next Month.

Bonn, October 26. This has been ſuch a Year of Plenty as has not been known in the Memory of Man: The Harveſt of every Kind has yielded beyond Expectation; and the Vintage, in Quantity and Quality, has exceeded that of 1766. On the Moſelle they were obliged to order that no Cyder ſhould be made this Year, there not being a ſufficient Number of Caſks for the Wine. The Vintage has alſo been very plentiful on the Mayn and Rhine.
